

WINE SALE – 18th OCTOBER 2019

An upbeat atmosphere and strong bidding throughout, in the room, on the telephone and by absentee bidders, saw a rapid clearance of in excess of 500 Lots. Bids came in once again from all over the UK, Europe and the Far East.

Top selling lot was a case of 12 bottles of Le Pine 1994 which sold at £12,000. Next best at £6,500 was another 12 bottle case, this time of Ch. Haut-Brion 1990, with 12 bottles of Ch. Lafite-Rothschild from 1989 selling at £5,500, whilst 12 bottles of Ch. Latour 1989 made £4,000.

Leading the per bottle stakes were 2 bottles of Echezeaux Grand Cru 1996 from Henri Jayet which sold at £5,500, with a further 2 bottles of the 1997 vintage at £4,500. Echezeaux 1998 made £4,200 for 2 bottles, with the 2000 vintage also selling at £4,200, and 2 bottles of Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux 1999 from Emmanuel Rouget selling at £3,200.

The Sale also included several interesting lots of whisky, with a bottle of 1963 The Macallan selling at £1,600, and 1975 at £1,500, and Middleton Very Rare Irish Whisky (1984) at £680.

Strong demand for Vintage Port, Champagne & Brandy also enhanced the sale, which also included numerous cases of everyday drinking wine and mixed lots offering remarkable value for money.

The Auctioneers, J. Straker, Chadwick & Sons are now accepting entries for the final sale of 2019, on Friday 6th December.
